4. This is a ministry that I have started to help other writers. The soundtracks will be clean (no back ground noises) and done to the best of our ability. We do not claim to be a Nashville studio but have you checked their prices?
5. The tracks will be made using computer generated music (mini) along with actual instruments.
6. There are examples on this website with some of the music I can produce. Please listen to these to see if they are acceptable. More is being added
7. Turn around time will be around two weeks unless other wise stated at time they are ordered.
8. Prices will be quoted before hand and not changed unless you want more instruments.
